- Provide education to individuals and whanau to improve health literacy
- Complete health assessments and referrals to support services where appropriate
- Work with GPs and other health providers to ensure health care is managed in the community
- Drive Hauora days to community and rural whānau

Where needed you will actively liaise with and support team members to provide service delivery in an appropriate and timely manner within the policy and guidelines of Ko Wai Au Trust.

About you:

- As the Practice Nurse you will have a current practicing certificate and nursing qualification
- 2-3 years' experience in a community health care setting
- Highly motivated to provide equitable health care and education to individuals and their whānau
- Ability to problem solve and strong networking/communication skills
- You will have life experience, patience, empathy, and great sense of humour
- A valid, clean and full New Zealand driver's licence

What we will offer:

- Opportunity for professional development and growth
- Competitive salaries $85,000.00 - $95,000.00 dependant of qualifications and experience
- A supportive, positive, whānau centred environment

- Flexible working opportunities
- At Ko Wai Au Trust we are committed to supporting the wellbeing of our kaimahi
- A meaningful career that is challenging but very rewarding
- Opportunity to provide health care and education in a safe creative environment
